

Job Title: A&P Helicopter Mechanic – North Perry Airport, FL
Department: Maintenance
Reports To: Lead Mechanic/DOM
Compensation: $30.00 - $45.00 per hour depending on experience, certifications, and qualifications. Eligible for company benefits and other compensation in accordance with company policy.

Job Summary:

The A&P Helicopter Mechanic is responsible for inspecting, maintaining, troubleshooting, and repairing rotary-wing aircraft to ensure safe and reliable operation. This role performs scheduled and unscheduled maintenance in compliance with FAA regulations, manufacturer specifications, and company policies. The mechanic may collaborate with other mechanics, maintenance leadership, and other technical personnel to diagnose and resolve mechanical, electrical, hydraulic, and avionics issues, while maintaining accurate documentation and promoting a strong culture of safety and quality.

Duties/Responsibilities:

- Perform routine inspections, maintenance, and repair of Bell, Airbus, Agusta, Sikorsky, and MD model aircraft
- Perform component overhauls as required
- Perform and document all work IAW manufacturer's manuals, regulations, and repair station manual, as required
- Maintain a clean and safe work environment
- May perform other duties as assigned

Required Skills and Qualifications:

- Valid FAA A&P license
- Efficient computer skills
- Complete a favorable background check
- Pass an FAA Drug Test
- Must be able to reliably commute to North Perry Airport, FL

Application Process:

Interested candidates are encouraged to apply by submitting an application, resume and any relevant certifications to careers@sterlinghelicopter.com with the subject line "A&P Helicopter Mechanic – North Perry Airport." Qualified applicants will be contacted to discuss their experience and schedule an interview.

We thank all applicants for their interest; however, only those selected for further consideration will be contacted.

